Seminar I
Saturday
11:30 AM to 1:00 PM
Sahra

Sahra's Blend of Classical Egyptian dance spiced with coquettishness makes watching her performance an exciting experience. She is an excellent instructor whose clear and concise directions appeal to all levels of expertise. She has several videos available, both instructional and performance. Come and enjoy one of Egypt's most beloved dancers!

MA'SHUQA—PHOTO BY VAR DAGHDEVIRIAN

Seminar II
Saturday
1:30 PM to 3:30 PM
Ma'Shuqa

Ma'Shuqa is also known internationally for her elegance, uniqueness and creativity. She is a professional educator whose methodology combines dance sequences with rhythmic zill patterns (so don't forget your zills), body positioning and graceful arms to produce a passionate performance. Experience for yourself the totality of the dance as presented by Ma'Shuqa.

Seminar III
Sunday, 11:30 AM to 1:00 PM
Richard Steiger

Richard is a master percussionist whose repertoire encompasses many cultures including but not limited to Arabic, Persian, East Indian, Turkish, and Moroccan styles. His hands-on instruction and patience will have you drumming with enthusiasm whether you're a novice or a professional. Dancers are encouraged to take this seminar to expand their knowledge of rhythm, thereby enhancing their dance. Bring your drums, zills, or other percussion instruments and immerse yourself in the rhythms of the world!

Seminar IV
Sunday, 1:30 PM to 3:30 PM
Helen Bilezikjian

Folk dancing lessons from one of the best instructors in the field is an absolute must for serious dancers, as well as those who enjoy open dancing. Don't feel left out when the group gets up to dance. Come learn Armenian, Turkish, Greek, Assyrian, and Jewish Folk Dance from Helen accompanied by John Bilezikjian. Her warm, open personality makes for a very pleasurable seminar experience.
